To: Judge Alleta Trauger

I'm asking you to show mercy + compassion in your sentencing of the Tennessee pro-lifers, who did a "sit-in," or what is called a "rescue," at the abortion clinic. I believe they did so for conscience-sake, and because of deep religious convictions that the killing of innocent babies is wrong. They did as much as they could peacefully do to intervene on behalf of those little human beings. (In the past, that type of social protest was dealt with as a misdemeanor -- Criminal trespass or misconduct; more recently, politically, it has been "upped" to be a federal felony ??)

Jesus asked the Pharisees + scribes, and the legal scholars of His day, when they accused Him of breaking the law for healing a man's palsied hand - but on the Sabbath - is it lawful rather to save life or to kill? And sadly, here in America, it has become lawful for women to kill their unborn babies, and unlawful for citizens/people who try to save life.

Again, I appeal to you if you are a woman of faith to understand their godly motives; or as a woman of intellect, to recognize the scientific fact of an unborn babies' humanity - for example a heartbeat at 18 days, brain waves at several weeks, their bodies' organ systems all in place by 8 weeks, that just need time to grow and develop; And lastly, I appeal to you as a mother, if you have ever borne a child and know how precious they are?; then please, show mercy and compassion to these pro-lifers in your sentencing.

Thank-you. Sincerely,
